

He's painting
Beauty
with the ashes

The image features elegant calligraphy in black ink with gold-colored decorative elements. The text is arranged in four lines: "He's painting", "Beauty", "with the", and "ashes". The word "Beauty" is written in a large, flowing cursive script, while the other words are in a smaller, more compact cursive. A large, stylized gold flower with a heart-shaped center is positioned above the word "painting". Below the word "ashes", there are two smaller gold flowers, one on the left and one on the right, and a horizontal gold leaf-like flourish.
